HOOPER SEEKS PEACE IN RAIL STRIKE

DIFFICULTY MAY BE OVERCOME IN FUTURE PARLEYS

Railway Labor Board Is Asked to Resume Its Hearings Soon

SENIORITY IS ISSUE

Striking Shopmen Demand
Former Rating When
Walkout Ends

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 15.—Railway strike peace, which seemed all but certain during most of the week, suffered a drop after today's conference following last night's dismissal upon failure of the roads and strikers to find even common ground.

Executives of the roads have virtually abandoned hope of immediate settlement, it was learned today. According to high officials of the railroad labor board the roads decided to make active plans for reopening all shops with non-union labor.

Chairman Ben W. Hooper of the labor board added to the general depression by announcing today that no further conference with the union heads was scheduled at present. CHICAGO, July 15.—The peace dove which yesterday flitted between separate gatherings of railroad executives and heads of the striking shopcrafts today bore a wilted olive branch which Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the United States labor board, hopefully tried to freshen.

Mr. Hooper announced that he had encountered "fundamental" difficulties in his efforts to bring about peace but with more parleys in prospect the situation gave promise of a new approach to a settlement, or at least to negotiations at which some agreement might be reached. In a statement Hooper said: "It was suggested that the railroad labor board reopen or resume the strike hearing held two days ago and another conference of the representatives of both sides. "It was suggested by me that it was useless to hold the hearing and conference unless there was a prospect of reaching an agreement. Both sides concurred in this. "After full discussion it was conclusively proved that the differences were fundamental.

Four Points Advanced
"Mr. Jewell and his associates suggested four things for consideration, set out in the order of the importance, namely: the contract system, the protest of the rules embraced in the board's decisions; the recent wage decision and the establishment of an adjustment board. Incidentally they demand that after satisfactory adjustment of the four matters named all the men on strike be reinstated in their former positions without impairment of their rights or seniority.

"The carriers suggested that they would undertake to meet the first request of the shopmen by wiping out the contract system on the two or three roads where it still exists. "The railroad executives further agreed to the establishment of regional boards of adjustment similar to those already in operation for the train and engine service men. "The executives would not agree that the strikers, when they return to service, should take the positions and seniority of the new men and the men who remained in service.

Mr. Jewell and his associates insist that the carriers must agree to a satisfactory modification of both the wage and rules decision of the board before the strike will be called off.

100 Amateur Golfers
Tee Off at Shawnee
In Contests Monday

SHAWNEE, Okla., July 15.—More than 100 amateur golfers of the state are expected to tee off on the links of the Shawnee Country Club for the qualifying round of the first annual invitation golf tournament to be held here beginning Monday for three days will begin. Tuesday and continue until Thursday, the day of the finals. The semi-finals will be for 18 holes and the finals for 36 holes.

Trophies will be awarded to the medalist and to the winners in all classes as well as to runners up. To the winner of Class A will go the Shawnee invitation tournament trophy.

Homage Is Paid By State Today To 2 Officials

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 15.—The state will pay homage to two former officials this afternoon when all departments at the capitol will be closed between two and four o'clock out of respect for the late George W. Steele, former territorial governor of Oklahoma, whose funeral is to be held today at Marion, Indiana, and Charles L. Daugherty, Oklahoma's first labor commissioner, who died yesterday. The funeral services for Mr. Daugherty are to be held tomorrow afternoon.

Ford's Proposal To Be Presented Soon For Senate Answer

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 15.—Despite the adverse vote, the proposals of Henry Ford and Senator Norris will be presented to the senate for the final decision through the minority report, according to Norris.

The other offers, including those of the Alabama Power company, Fred E. Engstrom and Charles L. Engstrom and Charles L. Parsons, also were rejected without a record vote. The committee also voted down without record vote the bill introduced by Senator Norris at the request of former Representative Lloyd of Missouri proposing a semi-government corporation.

Steals When Drunk, Cannot Keep Sober; Gets 10-Year Term

NEW YORK, July 15.—"You say you steal whenever you are drunk and that you cannot keep sober," said Judge B. J. Humphreys to Frank Krauss, 41 years old, who was before him for sentence yesterday. "I always do all I can to encourage sobriety and so I am going to assist you by making it hard for you to get drunk. I am sentencing you to Sing Sing for ten years. That may take the edge off your appetite."

Committee To Seek Revision of Laws To Handle Strike

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 15.—Hearings will be held soon by the senate interstate commerce commission to initiate a revision of the transportation act, and dealing with problems developed by the present strike, Chairman Cummings stated today.

The first effort of the conference, Cummings said, would probably be to amend the laws so as to guarantee a fair living wage to railroad workmen. Later, but probably not during the present strike, he said, efforts will be made to provide penalties for violations of the orders of the railway labor board.

KLAN QUESTION IS DUMPED INTO SUPREME COURT

Cunning and Grigsby Are Given 30 Days To Pay
Fines for Stand.

WILL BE TEST ACTION

Both Sides Eager To Have
State Bench Render An Opinion in Case.

Pontotoc county will furnish for Oklahoma a precedent on the question of whether a jury venireman can be forced to answer the question, "Are you a member of the Ku Klux Klan?"

This was made certain Saturday morning when C. E. Cunningham, local lumberman, and Miles C. Grigsby, print shop proprietor, appealed to the supreme court a fine of $25 imposed by District Judge J. W. Bolen for remaining quiet on the Klan interrogation put to them when a jury was being selected in district court last week to try T. J. Bassinger on a charge of murder. Judge Bolen allowed thirty days for payment of the fine, declaring the two men "trusties" until the expiration of that time.

Is Equal to "Yes"

Both sides declared their eagerness for the case to be taken to the higher court of the state for a decision. When the case was called today, at the conclusion of a 10-day period allotted by District Judge Bolen for defendants to consider what their final answer would be, Robert Wimble, counsel for Cunningham and Grigsby, made a short statement citing a Utah case in which, he declared, the opinion was handed down that refusal to answer the question should be construed as an answer in the affirmative.

At the end of the 30 days, defendants must file a supersedeas bond upon their appeal. Hearing of the case this morning required less than ten minutes. When Cunningham and Grigsby appeared in the court room they were accompanied by a group of friends and business associates who took seats near the defense table. They made no statement. To an objection entered by their counsel to the term "trusties" being inserted in the records, Judge Bolen answered that it was only a part of his oral instructions to the sheriff and would not become part of the record.

LEWIS REJECTS
HARDING'S PLAN

Union President Asks That
Miners Turn Down Idea
To End Strike.

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 15.—Members of the general policy committee of the miners' union, the body having full power to decide for all the coal workers now on strike in the bituminous fields and on work suspension in the anthracite fields, held a two hour session today during which John L. Lewis, president of the organization, recommended that President Harding's arbitration proposals for a strike settlement be unqualifiedly rejected.

The discussion, which began among 150 odd subordinate officials of the miners union barely got under way when a recess was taken. The first speeches made by committee members were said to have supported Mr. Lewis' position in general. Participants in the meeting expect a vote before night to determine finally the union position.

Grable Confers On Issues
of Railway Situation
With Harding.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—E. F. Grable, chief of the union brotherhood of maintenance of way employees and railway shop laborers, spent two and a half hours in conference today with President Harding, but declined to make a statement on the conference on leaving the White House. A White House statement, however, states that Mr. Grable and Fred Frick, legislative representative of the union, who also participated in the discussion, both expressed hope for an early settlement and declared that "proper conferences" would end in a settlement. The president, it is said, assured his two visitors that "every possible conference is being sought."

CLARK TO SUBMIT FOR FRAUD TRIAL

Dodson Files Charges In State Scandal Case;
Bond Is Fixed.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 15.—W. R. Clark, against whom a charge of forgery was filed yesterday by W. T. Dodson, former secretary of the state board of education, in connection with the alleged unlawful issuance of two state teachers certificates, gave himself up today, was arraigned at a preliminary hearing before a justice of the peace and is being held for trial in the district court under bond of $1000.

On perfecting bail Clark described the charge as "one of the dirtiest double-crosses he had ever seen." Similar information against a negro doctor named Wakefield was filed yesterday by Dodson in connection with the case. The negro is alleged to have paid Clark $200 for the certificates which he procured for two of his own race. Wakefield has not been found.

REGISTRARS GET ELECTION RULES

Sims Tells Precinct Men
Terms of Law Under Which They Act.

Alleging that erroneous reports had been circulated concerning registration in the county, F. C. Sims, county registrar today sent the following statement to all precinct registrars: "It is your duty to register all men and women living in your precinct who apply to you for registration, provided they have not voted before. This, of course, includes men and women who have arrived at their majority within the past two years or since the last election. If a person has moved into your precinct since the last election and was registered in another county, the law makes it his duty to have his registration certificate cancelled in the county from which he has come.

"Persons moving from one ward or voting precinct into another must cancel the registration certificate in the ward or precinct from which they moved, and present same to the registrar of the precinct in which they now live, and upon so doing it is your duty to register them.

Tricks Are Common.
"It is not your duty to register persons who claim to have lost their registration receipts, unless they comply with the requirements hereinafter mentioned. In that case you should thoroughly satisfy yourself that such person was formerly registered. Make thorough search of your stubs and satisfy yourself that the party was in truth and in fact registered. When you have become satisfied that they had formerly registered and lost their registration receipt, it is your duty to register them in the same political party in which they formerly registered, provided, of course, they are still qualified electors of your precinct.

"Pay particular attention to such persons and be sure not to permit such ones to change their political affiliations. Persons are not permitted to change their registration from one political party to another unless they present you with their old registration certificate, duly marked cancelled, and signed by the precinct registrar, showing that such change was made prior to the first day of May, 1922.

"No person who has registered since the passing of the Act of 1916, is required to register again, nor should you permit such person to re-register.

"Yours very truly,
"F. C. SIMS,
"County Registrar."

Former Justice of Peace Escapes Band of Captors In Woodland Near Tulsa

(By the Associated Press)
TULSA, July 15.—S. R. Hallman, former justice of the peace, and the supposed intended victim of the second tar and feather party held here two nights ago, returned to his home at 8:30 this morning uninjured except for a few minor bruises and scratches and minus any indication of tar and feathers.

Hallman explained to a group of friends and neighbors that following his abduction from the residence of Carl Southern, across the street from his own home at 5:30 yesterday afternoon, he was driven many miles into the Osage hills. When the car finally stopped he was taken out and, while his captors were making preparations for the application of tar and feathers, that he was able to overpower his guard and escape into the woods. The approach of another automobile in the vicinity probably caused part of his guards to be temporarily off guard, he said.

He said he escaped into the Osage hills minus hat and shirt and spent the night in hiding, fearing to move about much as he thought his abductors were still searching for him. At daybreak he ventured to come out of his hiding place among the rocks and underbrush and sought assistance at a ranch house. The ranchman furnished him with a hat and shirt and drove him to his home here.

He refused to answer any questions regarding his service as a bondsman. Mrs. Hallman did not know of his going on any bonds and the records at the courthouse failed to reveal his acting as a bondsman.

KATY SETTLES STRIKE QUESTION WITH CLERKS

(By the Associated Press)
ST. LOUIS, July 15.—The M. K. & T. today signed a wage agreement with its 2,700 clerks and is the second road with general offices here to settle with the clerks. Details of the agreement were not made public but it was said to have awarded an average of 55 cents an hour. The contract can be ended on thirty days notice.

BIBLE THOUGHT OF TODAY

SUPPLY IS SURE:—Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.—Psalm 37: 3, 4.

Cotton is still more or less uncertain but there is no uncertainty about the quality of foodstuffs and feed in Pontotoc county. Profiting by their hard lot last year the farmers devoted considerable attention to raising something to eat and with the favorable season they certainly have succeeded well. There is no occasion, so far as we have observed, for anyone to go hungry if he has made any sort of effort. This means that another crop can be made with little expense and will leave the cotton as a clear money crop to pay off old obligations and buy necessities for the coming year. All who have not been out of town lately should by all means drive out and see the crops as they now are. It is a sure cure for the blues.

Conan Doyle, the creator of Sherlock Holmes, suggests that spiritualist mediums can render the police good service in solving mysteries by consulting the spirits and getting a few pointers that will lead to the detection of the guilty parties. Nothing particularly new about that. The earliest travelers in Darkest Africa told of witch doctors who were consulted about the identity of the witches who caused the death of any person, for death was due to no other cause. As they were paid so much per witch they never failed to point out one or more. No doubt a medium could do that well.

CAN'T LET GO.

A staff writer at Washington states that the Republican senators are getting mighty tired of the tariff bill and many of them wish they had let it alone for another year or two. With the world torn up as it is tariff tinkering is largely a matter of hit or miss with more chances of missing than hitting. Besides that the western senators refuse to play the part of tail to the New England kite any longer and that is causing a lot of trouble. There is no longer an Aldrich and Hale to crack the party whip and bring the ordinary senator into line.

The Enid Events figures that no matter whether Walton is nominated or defeated at the primary there will be a bolt from the Democratic ranks that will elect John Fields. The wish is the father of the prediction. Perhaps that might have been possible two years ago but in the face of the unredeemed promises made by the Republicans two years ago most of the Democrats will stay in line rather than make another such mistake as they made then. Cold comfort for Fields in that forecast or wish whichever you may term it.

The Allen Democrat states that Allen in thoroughly alive to the boll weevil menace that a canvass will be made by the business men next week to endeavor to interest farmers in the log drag. In fact, they will make a man a present of a drag if he is not able to afford one otherwise. They want a cotton crop and are going after it in real earnest. That is the spirit that wins any sort of fight and here's hoping that the Allen territory makes as much cotton as any other section of the county.

How much better it would be if people who consider themselves posted on the ordinary affairs of life would lend a helping hand and word to ones who have not had their advantages instead of wounding the feelings of the unfortunate ones by ridiculing their crudeness. This applies with special force to the boys and girls. Many a sensitive soul carries scars from wounds carelessly inflicted by unthinking or heartless persons who derived amusement from their blunders.

The latest presidential boom is one launched by Wilbur Glenn Voliva, boss of Zion City, who is for nominating W. J. Bryan as head of the ticket and himself as vice-president. Voliva recently declared that the scientists are all wrong in teaching that the earth is round; that the Bible taught otherwise. Perhaps he expects to make that the paramount issue of his campaign. Mr. Bryan has not been heard from.

The man who said one could not make something out of nothing was evidently a stranger to some of our modern stump speakers with weak cases to present the public. They furnish great gobs of stuff which is beyond question manufactured from nothing more substantial than a disordered and unscupulous brain. And much of it is swallowed, too.

While vigilant search is being made for men gifted with the diplomatic instinct, why overlook the chap who says the letters his wife holds as evidence in a divorce suit are fakes he wrote himself to make her jealous and left in places where she would be sure to find them?—K. C. Journal.

The old saying about there being fire where much smoke is seen does not always apply to a political campaign. A smooth politician of the unscrupulous type can create a regular smoke screen without the aid of a single spark of fire. One the other hand the hottest fires make little or no smoke.

WITH A VACATION IN THE OPEN, INCONVENIENCES BECOME LUXURIES!

The Fourth of the Press

The Fourth and After.
 (Holdenville Democrat)

Just the other day all of us were celebrating in a manner more or less enthusiastic the birthday of this Republic. Men and women more or less eloquent were telling assembled audiences of the birth of a new nation now old in years and enumerating the fundamental principles of government and freedom on which this nation is founded.

They told us of the equality of all citizens, of the right to representation in government of all who pay taxes, of the sacred right of the people to manage their own local affairs in a word they reviewed those principles which differentiate the Union from all other nations and which made this nation the greatest and freest of all the ages.

Now that the Fourth is past we go about our daily vocations and complacently ignore the efforts of designing men to limit the liberties of the people if not destroy the very principles that make us free.

We view with indifference or ignore utterly the avowed purpose of political organization to exempt from all taxation one class of our citizenship, limit the right to hold office to those exempt from all taxation, and deny participation in government to the class forced by law to pay all taxes. "Vote for none but candidates of our class," is the battle cry of the socialist. "Exempt our class from taxation," is a specific promise of their platform.

We drive bargains in the market place and discuss monkey glands while a gubernatorial candidate promises to destroy local self-government in every school district in Oklahoma, abolish every school board in the state, and give to a courthouse board the right to purchase all school supplies, let contracts for all school buildings, and employ all teachers in a given county.

What does the Fourth of July mean anyway? What becomes of Jefferson's dictum that all men are created equal if only one class of our citizenship is permitted to hold office? What becomes of the doctrine for which Warren and Montgomerie died if participation in government is denied to the very class that under a promised law will pay all taxes? What becomes of local self-government if all school boards are abolished and every school that teaches the Declaration of independence is placed under the control of a courthouse board whose members dance to the music of state pipes?

Did You Ever Stop to Think.
 (Lawton Constitution)

That every time a man allows prejudice to influence him, he is cheating himself. His mental vision is clouded. He doesn't see straight. He should see his opportunity. Boost your city!

That it requires great mental and physical effort of every citizen to make your city climb the ladder of fame.

That the time will come when all knackers will be forced to leave your city and their places will be filled by men who will be city boosters and city builders.

That conventions bring more than money to your city, because your city will be immeasurably benefitted by the good will you generate as genial hosts.

That your city is now upon the threshold of its greatest opportunities for trade cultivation.

That farming is a business and it is also possible to make a business grow.

That you should determine to make your business grow and return you profits on your investment and labor.

That your agricultural section needs and welcomes more home owners. The family seeking a small homestead for poultry, dairying and a small acreage for general farming can find desirable openings near your city.

That every community has its civic slackers, men who turn an indifferent eye to the needs of their city.

Losing a Growing Coal Market.
 (McAlester News-Capital)

When the conditions in the United States are anywhere near normal, its people produce more than they consume in many directions. This fact is the basis of foreign commerce, to develop and protect which is a prime concern of the nation, more so at this time than in any other time in the history of the country.

Easily among the foremost markets to which the United States should look is Latin America, where busy people are fast building up potent nations who instinctively are in neighborly sympathy with this country. It is yet another proof of the injury the coal trouble now disturbing the country Great Britain is snatching important export business with South America.

Here we move out of the realm of theory into the field of fact. Coal operation came to a virtual stand still in this country; South America turned elsewhere, Britain with a very low demand at the moment from her continental markets had the necessary supply and the business is here to the loss of American commerce.

President Harding need look no farther for a challenge to his obvious duty. Public welfare at home and national prosperity abroad, which are inevitably linked, demand prompt action looking to a termination of the strike. If there has been any reluctance on the part of the executive to hasten the hands of the rival parties to the strike, the public has ceased to share that reluctance, but on the contrary feels that the President has good reason to know that the time has come when he should employ all the means at his disposal in the interest of the public.

That the strike should have been prevented in the first place is the conviction of many; that the public interest should continue to suffer, if the government has any power of remedy at all, is highly repugnant to a public long disgusted with the selfishness of those profiting from general necessity.

With the Women of Today

By EDITH MORIARTY

The recent conference of welfare workers held in Providence, R. I., brought to light what the individual cities of the country are doing in the way of taking care of the future citizens. That the country itself is looking after this same matter is evidenced by the fact that a woman is being sent to all of the island possessions of the United States to establish welfare centers. She is Miss Kathleen d'Olier of Rochester, N. Y., who established the first and only child welfare center in Athens, Greece, in 1920. That center was established under the American Red Cross nursing service. Miss d'Olier is in Washington now where she will remain until leaving for Porto Rico where she will undertake the establishment of the first child welfare center for the United States.

White Chiffon and Lace In Dainty Summer Dress

By MARY BROOKS PICKEN

FASHION authorities used to talk of "lace seasons," but lace has become so unusually popular that it is as permanently in demand as silk and wool. And, too, there are so many attractive designs and so many tints and shades that every want in lace can be happily supplied.

At one time, to cut lace was a serious misdemeanor, but nowadays lace is measured, cut, or draped in place. Or, a pattern is placed on the lace yardage and it is cut as freely as is a piece of voile or crepe de Chine.

Fashion shows lace draped and arranged in panels and in many irregular and interesting ways, but no arrangement seems to be so popular as that of flounce or tier.

Lace, to be most effective, requires two things: a dainty, limp foundation and seams and joinings so daintily made as to be totally indiscernible. In this case, a straight foundation skirt of chiffon is covered with three tiers of lace. The waist portion is cut full and blousy and extends below the waist line, where it joins the skirt underneath the lace.

The collar-sleeve arrangement of lace is the same in front and back. The flowers at the left side waist line are of self-material.

The hat is of white chiffon, and is trimmed with clusters of dainty tea roses and blue ribbon.

If cream- or yellow-tinted lace or chiffon is used, black ribbon should be used in preference to blue.

Tyrus Cob Proves His Challenge Is Not 'Flash in Pan'

SISLER IS PUSHED TO MAINTAIN LEAD IN BATTING STYLE

"Georgia Peach" Creeps Up On St. Louisan, New Report Shows.

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 15.—Ty Cobb's challenge for the batting leadership of the American league was no flash in the pan, judging from averages compiled today which show the Detroit leader closing the gap separating him from George Sisler, the St. Louis marvel, who is leading the race with an average of .420.

Cobb is just fourteen points behind Sisler, as compared with thirty-one a week ago. The noted Georgian's remarkable batting streak netted him twenty hits in his last nine games, as against twelve hits collected by Sisler in eight games.

Tris Speaker, manager of the Cleveland club, moved back into third place with an average of .364, deposing Harry Heilmann of Detroit, who dropped into fourth place with .354.

Sisler is without a dangerous rival in base stealing. He is showing his heels to the contenders with a string of thirty-two thefts, while Ken Williams, the home run hitter, is second in line with twenty-six.

Ruth Not Homer King.

The see-sawing fight between Williams and Tilly Walkers of the Athletics for home run hitting continues with honors even, each having knocked out twenty-one. Ruth is down in the list with fourteen.

Perhaps the most impressive stick work in the National league was the batting of Charlie Hollocher, the "kid" shortstop with Chicago, who, in seven games, smashed out thirteen hits which enabled him to jump from ninth to third place in the list of leading sluggers with an average of .359.

Rogers Hornsby, the St. Louis star, with his record of twenty-three home runs, continues to top the league in hitting, with an average of .399, nine points above his mark of a week ago. Hank Gowdy of Boston is second with .372.

Max Carey of Pittsburgh is holding the lead in base stealing with twenty-two, with Tierney also of Pittsburgh, second with sixteen. Hornsby is third with fourteen.

Kirk Leads Americans.
Jay Kirke, the Louisville first baseman, is the new batting leader of the American Association. Kirke connected with seventeen hits in eight games, pulling himself from fourth place to the top of the heap within a week for an average of .418.

Bunny Brief of Kansas City is safely in the lead in home run hitting, with a string of twenty-one with Reb. Russell of Minneapolis second with sixteen. Krueger of Indianapolis and Becker of Kansas City are third with a dozen apiece.

Mathews of Milwaukee and Baird of Indianapolis are tied for honors in base stealing with fifteen apiece. Christensen of St. Paul is next in line with fourteen.

Tulsa in Spotlight.
The Tulsa wrecking crew is rapidly absorbing the brightest rays of the limelight for batting honors of the Western league, although the slugging skill of Fisher of St. Joseph continues to keep him at the top of the individual list with an average of .418.

Tulsa's position as the swat leader of the circuit is established by the remarkable total of eighty-two home runs thus far this season and by four men in the first ten leading hitters of the league. Davis of Tulsa is leading the race in home run hitting with twenty, while Bennett and Lamb, also of Tulsa have collected fourteen and are tied with Washburn of Wichita for second place honors.

Fisher's leadership in the individual performance role was emphasized during the past week to the extent of seven points gain in the margin separating him from Manush of Omaha, who, by consistent batting on onslaughts, has challenged the position of the St. Joseph star from the season's outset. Manush's average is .397. Carl East of Wichita held fast to third place with .388. The figures include games of Monday.

Hemingway of Sioux City continues to set the pace for the base stealers with twenty-nine, as compared with twenty-five a week ago.

S. record for the high and low hurdles. Miss Maybell Gilliland of Leonia, N. J., is a dash and relay star. Miss Kathryn Agar of Chicago is the U. S. champ in the two-handed javelin throw.

Lynch Helped Put Bantams In Two-time Champ Class

(By Norman E. Brown)
Regardless of what you thing of the class of their exhibitions you've got to hand it to Joe Lynch and Pete Herman.

They're the shoes' rubber heels when it comes to adding to the list of records. Not only have they entered the exclusive ranks of the champs who have come back to their titles after losing them but they comprise the entire list of bantams who have performed such a feat. You'll recall that Pete Herman, then bantam champ, lost his title to Lynch Dec. 22, 1920, and regained it in July last year. Lynch recaptured the title from Johnny Buff the other night.

While up to Herman's time the bantamweight class had never numbered a two-time champion, the other classes have furnished several such instances. Jack Britton and his feat of regaining the welter title from Ted Lewis after losing it once to the gent comes to mind first. Lewis lifted the title from Britton's shoulders June 25, 1917, at Dayton, O. Britton regained the title by knocking Lewis out in the ninth round at Canton, O., March 17, 1919.

Most of the other cases occurred from 20 to 25 years ago, however. The only instance nearer the two decades ago was that of Stanley Ketchel. Papke won the title from the great Ketchel by knocking him out in the twelfth round Sept. 8, 1908, and just sixty-three days later lost it to Ketchel when that marvel knocked Billy out in eleven rounds Nov. 20.

The old boys will recall that the wonderful little colored lad, George Dixon, performed such a stunt. Dixon lost the title to Solly Smith in a 20-round decision bout in San Francisco Oct. 4, 1897. Smith lost the title when he was declared the loser in a battle with Dave Sullivan at Coney Island, Sept. 26, 1898, after Smith had suffered a broken arm in the fifth round. On Nov. 11 that year, a little over a year after losing the crown, Dixon regained it by winning over Sullivan in 11 rounds. That fight was staged at the Lenox A. C.

In between his defeat at the hands of Smith and his victory over Sullivan Dixon had met Ben Jordan, English featherweight champion. This bout, staged in July, 1898 ended in such a decisive beating for Dixon at the hands of the invader that many believed "Little Chocolate" was through.

Makes Pirates Walk the Plank Like So Many Little Children

(By Norman E. Brown)
Had some kind fortune teller tipped off Barney Dreyfus and his associates back in 1915 as to what the future held for Arthur Nehf, now a Giant pitcher, it is a good bet that Barney would have shelled out several times the $3,000 finally obtained for Nehf when the big league bidon him.

For it is this modest southpaw who is just running the day every now and then for the Pirates. He has turned back the Pittsburgh crew in consecutive games. And the Pirates' wreckers haven't solved his stuff yet, apparently.

Also the Boston Braves, lumbering along in the cellar, could use him, too. The Hub owners let Nehf amble along to New York three years ago next month when the Giant bosses offered four players and $40,000 in cash for him. All of which is durned interesting to Terre Haute, Ind., folk especially. For they always said down in the Hoosier city that Art had the makings of a pitcher when he first began heaving toys around shortly after he was born there July 31, 1892.

And he's a living repudiation of the adage that a prophet is without honor in his own home town, for it was while he was playing with the Terre Haute Central league club after serving apprenticeships with ris thrilling draw with Joe Lynch at Madison Square Gardens two years ago. That meet was fifteen rounds.

When Sharkey graduated into the featherweight class he took on the good boys right off the reel and one of the pros promising lads to bow to Jack was Pepper Martin the lad who recently was boomed for a title bout with Johnny Kilbane. Martin failed to warm up to a return watch after loudly demanding it.

The Mysterious Billy Smith also figures in one of these retrieving episodes. Smith was the victim to start Rube Ferns on his double winning career. Ferns won the title from Billie at Buffalo Jan. 15, 1890. Smith lost on a foul in the twelfth round. Ferns lost the title to Matthews Oct. 16, that year, at Detroit. That fight went fifteen rounds. The following year, on May 24, Ferns got a return crack at Matthews and knocked him out in the tenth round in a sizzling battle in Toronto.

The English fighters have also furnished several instances of regained titles. Bombardier Wells, Moir, Freddy Welsh and Mat Wells all boast of having recaptured titles knocked from their heads.

These double-winners are far enough apart, though, to make such a situation of considerable interest.

Arthur Nehf.

Negawnee, Kansas City and Sioux City that the Braves bought him. As long as Art can humble the Pirates every time he shows up on the same field with them he'll be sure of a place in the big show.

Mr. Green also stated that the Healdton team which will play here Sunday, July 23, will arrive in town next Saturday night with a band and lots of enthusiasm. Healdton is one of the few victors over the local team this season.

AMERICAN BALLOON RACER HOPING FOR VICTORY AT GENEVA

Honeywell Will Stake His Chances Upon Flying Near to Earth.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 15.—H. E. Honeywell, pilot of the "Uncle Sam" one of the three American entrants in the international balloon race for the Gordon Bennett cup, starting from Geneva, Switzerland, August 6, hopes to win first honors by flying as low as possible and staying in the air longer than other entrants, thereby making more distance.

Expecting to land in Russia, Capt. Honeywell said his plan of flight probably would be different from that of most of his opponents in the race, which is the fourth international event he has entered.

"Other entrants probably will fly over the Alps," he continued, "and the altitude necessary to accomplish this will greatly shorten their time in the air, and their distance. A balloon which flies over the Alps cannot stay in the air more than 24 hours.

Will Fly Low.

"I expect to get out of Switzerland either through the Rhone Valley to the south or through the Rhine Valley to the north. I want to fly as low as possible—keeping always below 8,000 feet if I can manage it—and will be able therefore to remain in the air perhaps as long as 48 hours.

"If I find it necessary to cross any mountains, I may have to rise to 18,000 feet or more, but this I hope to avoid. If my plans go as I expect, I will land in Russia."

During his career as a balloonist, Honeywell declared he has made nearly 600 flights, having participated in more than a score of races in which he always has ranked high in honors. He holds many distance and endurance trophies, and probably has the experience of flying in more parts of the world than any other balloonist.

Probably his most adventurous flight was in the international race from Stuttgart, Germany in 1912. He flew 1,350 miles and landed in Russia 100 miles west of Moscow. His balloon was torn to pieces and used for clothing by the Russian authorities for almost a week suspected of being a spy. The American consul effected his release. Then, again in 1920 he covered more than 1,000 miles winning the American race from Birmingham. He landed in Canada.

If Honeywell should be successful in winning the race from Geneva he will obtain possession of the Gordon Bennett Cup, a silver trophy, which he retains until the next international race. The country whose entrant wins has the privilege of fixing the place and date of the race for the following year.

Honeywell is 49 years old and served in both the Spanish American and the world war. He was an official of a balloon manufacturing concern until the United States government took over the manufacture of balloons and the company went out of business. His wife and daughter accompanied him to Geneva to see the start of the race.

MANY ARTISTS IN CAST OF "FOREVER"

One of the most elaborate and thrilling motion pictures produced in many months is "Forever," a George Fitzmaurice production for Paramount, starring Elsie Ferguson and Wallace Reid, which will be the feature de luxe at the McSwain theatre for two days beginning Monday next.

Headed by the stars named, the cast in this photoplay is the most imposing ever gathered for a Paramount picture with the possible exception of "The Affairs of Anatol," Elliott Dexter, Montagu Love, Geo. Pawcett and Paul McAlister play the principal supporting male roles. The two female parts, next in importance to the "Duchess of Towers," which is Miss Ferguson's role, are played by Barbara Dean and Dolores Cassinelli.

A half dozen or more youngsters are seen in the first part of the picture. Little Gogo Pasquero, who grows up to be "Peter Ibbetson," is played by Charles Eaton, eight years old. Nell Buck, an eight-year-old edition of Elsie Ferguson, is "Mimi," the little girl who becomes the "Duchess of Towers" later in the story.

The opening scenes for the picture were filmed in a most artistic setting—a French garden at Passy, a suburb of Paris. All four seasons of the year are shown in the garden opening with the Springtime.
